OFFICE OF LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL

Monday - 31 July 1967

25X1

1. [REDACTED] Scott Cohen, in the office of Senator Charles Percy (R., Ill.), called to inquire whether the Agency could furnish the Senator with an analysis of Nasser's speech of 23 July. After checking with [REDACTED] I informed Cohen that we would prepare such an analysis and deliver it to Senator Percy on 1 August. Cohen was most appreciative.

3. [REDACTED] Bernard Fensterwald, Chief Counsel, Senate Subcommittee on Administrative Practice and Procedure, called to inquire if the Agency has any connection with [REDACTED] who has been creating some problems for the Committee and who also has obtained entrance to meetings of various kinds on the allegations that he represents the Agency. Fensterwald plans to call [REDACTED] as a witness and expose him, but does not desire to do so if he, in fact, is connected with the Agency. I shall check and advise Fensterwald.
